Climbing Wall & Pegboard Rules

For your own safety and the safety of other climbing participants and spectators, you must read, understand, and follow all climbing wall rules. Failure to abide by these rules can result in dismissal from the climbing area. Please sign and date this form after you have read it in its entirety. If you have any questions about these rules, please contact a staff member for clarification.

RULES OF CLIMBING WALL & PEGBOARD

- All climbers must check in and sign a release form. If under 18 years of age, parent/guardian must sign.
- Children must be able to fit into a climbing harness to climb the wall. Children under 10 must be accompanied by an adult while they are using the wall.
- Must wear shirt and shoes (tennis shoes or climbing shoes only).
- NO running, swearing, rough housing or swinging on ropes.
- Food and beverage are not allowed in the climbing area.
- The use of chalk is limited to confined chalk (no loose chalk).
- The bouldering pad must be used when using the pegboard.
- Bouldering may be done any time the facility is open. Bouldering is allowed only as high as the 2nd black coal vein (approximately 10ft.). Must be 10 years or older to boulder.
- Those bouldering should not be below other climbers. Climbers and belayers should be aware of those bouldering at all times.
- Climbers must have successfully completed an introduction to climbing class or prove their proficiency to belay to a staff member BEFORE they will be allowed to belay for others.

I have read and understand these rules and recognize that I am responsible for following the above stated rules.
